NOTICE OF PUBLIC CONSULTATION ON THE DRAFT COASTAL ZONE RISK MANAGEMENT AND ADAPTATION PLAN FOR THE ONSLow COAST
The Shire of Ashburton invites submissions on the draft Coastal Zone Risk Management and Adaptation Plan (CHRMAP) for the Onslow Coast.
The CHRMAP has been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the State Planning Policy 2.6: Coastal Planning (SPP2.6) and supporting documents.
The purpose of the CHRMAP is to:
• Ensure that development and the location of coastal facilities takes into account coastal hazards, climate change and physical coastal erosion.
• Ensure the identification of appropriate areas for the sustainable use of the coast for housing, tourism, recreation, ocean access, maritime, commercial and other activities.
• Provide for public coastal access to the coast and access to them on the coast.
• Protect, conserve and enhance coastal zone values, particularly in areas of local cultural, historical and ecosystem integrity, including cultural and natural significance.
A copy of the draft Onslow Coastal Zone Risk Management and Adaptation Plan is available for inspection during office hours at the Shire's administrative offices in Tom Price and Onslow, and at the Paraburdoo Public Library.
The draft document may also be viewed on the Shire's Website page at www.ashburton.wa.gov.au.
Comments on the draft CHRMAP may be submitted in writing to the Shire of Ashburton, on or before 22 September 2017.

Rates Notices 2017/18

Annual rates notices were issued on 4 August 2017. From payment of your rates is due on 8 September 2017. If you have not received your rates notice by 8 September 2017, you must pay the first instalment amount shown on your rates notice by 8 September 2017. Part-payment or late payment of the first instalment will result in your account being excluded from the instalment program. Further, you will be expected to pay your rates in full and you will not be issued with instalment reminder notices.

Rates Assistance Grants 2017/18

Clubs and organisations who have successfully applied for Rates Assistance Grants have been advised in writing of the process to be followed in accessing grant funds for assistance in the payment of rates. Clubs and organisations should note that Rates Assistance Grants funding applies only to the annual rates payable by the club or organisation and is not intended to cover the payment of Water Management Charges, Waste Recycle Charges and the Emergency Services Levy.

PUBLIC NOTICE APPROXIMATION MEETING TO CONSIDER PROPOSED INDIGENOUS LAND USE AGREEMENT IN RELATION TO THE LAND COMPRISING THE LEGUNE PASTORAL LEASE AND THE ADJACENT INTERNAL ZONE FOR PROJECT SEA DRAGON

The Northern Land Council is commencing a process to negotiate a Land Use Agreement (LUA) (also approved) in accordance with Subsection C of Division 3 of Part 2 of Native Title Act 1993 (Cth), in relation to:

- HT Pastors 798 and 2222, comprising the land underlying Legune Pastoral Lease (Proposed Pastoral Lease 142) within the Northern Territory, and
- the adjacent Internal Zone.

(collectively, the LUA Area).

The purpose of the LUA is to provide for cooperation and other benefits for the stated upon native title and to enable the grant of licences to facilitate the construction and operation of Project Sea Dragon in the LUA Area.

The LUA is proposed to be between Project Sea Dragon Pty Ltd (ACN 604 938 192) (a fully owned subsidiary of Sestima Group Limited), Top End (District) Aboriginal Aboriginal Corporation (NTBC) representatives of the native title holders for the adjacent internal zone, the Northern Land Council and the Northern Territory of Australia.

HT Pastors 798 and 2222 – Legune Pastoral Lease (Proposed Pastoral Lease 142)
The part of the LUA Area comprising HT Pastors 798 and 2222 is the subject of native title determination known as the Gajingay-Walngyayay Group, the Gajingay-Gumbin Group and the Gajingay-Djambingay Group v Northern Territory (2011) 624 575 (Legune Pastoral Lease Determination). The Top End (District) Aboriginal Corporation (NTBC) is the grantee for the common law native title holders defined in the Legune Pastoral Lease Determination.

Internal zone adjacent to Legune Pastoral Lease
The part of the LUA Area comprising the internal zone adjacent to Legune Pastoral Lease is not the subject of a determination or claim claim made under the Native Title Act 1993 (Cth). However, the Northern Territory of Australia (NT) is the grantee for the common law native title holders defined in the Legune Pastoral Lease Determination.

Project Sea Dragon plans to develop land-use, planning, construction, operation, maintenance and decommissioning of Project Sea Dragon in the LUA Area. The LUA is a necessary prerequisite to ensure project production business compliance of facilities for the high-scale production of gas and gas liquids on the LUA Area being:

- 1) Proposed land-based assets;
- 2) The West Flow Project coal gasification;
- 3) and other assets necessary to the project, including its ancillary (a) above;
- 4) for the site, including support, of excavation, marine protection and;
- 5) any associated works, plant, equipment and infrastructure to support the above; and
- 6) all primary production activities permitted on HT Pastors 798 and 2222 (Legune Pastoral Lease).

Approximate meeting
The approximation meeting will be held in Kununurra, Western Australia, as follows:
Date and time: Wednesday, 30 August 2017 at 10:00am
Place: Lakeside Caravan Park, 50 Casuarina Way, Kununurra.
Purpose of the meeting: to discuss whether to authorise the making of the proposed Project Sea Dragon LUA.

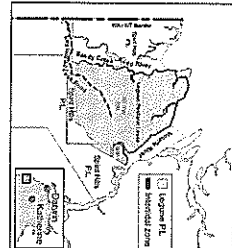

You are invited to attend the approximation meeting if you:

- Are a native title holder pursuant to the Legune Pastoral Lease Determination, or
- Consider you hold or may hold native title in relation to part of the LUA Area comprising the adjacent zone adjacent to the Legune Pastoral Lease.

Please contact Regional King of the Northern Land Council/Thinker Creek Office on 0400 811 530 or at Regional.King@nlc.gov.au or by Wednesday, 23 August 2017 if:

- You consider you hold or may hold native title in relation to part of the LUA Area comprising the adjacent zone adjacent to the Legune Pastoral Lease and wish to register your interest in attending the approximation meeting. Please be prepared to provide your name, contact details and the basis upon which you claim to hold native title.
- You require assistance with transport to the approximation meeting; or
- You have any questions in relation to the approximation meeting.

Lunch will be provided. Please note that no meeting fees will be paid for the approximation meeting.
